Geography – Day 2

WALT: Know the difference between rural and urban areas

What is an urban area?

An urban area has lots of people living there. Towns, cities and suburbs are all urban areas.

What is a rural area?

A rural area has fewer people living there. Rural areas include the countryside, villages and hamlets. They are outside of urban areas.

Urban:

- pavements
- zebra crossing
- shops
- roads
- pedestrians

Rural:

- tractor
- fields
- hill
- hedge
- gate

Sort the following pictures into 'urban' or 'rural'.

How do you know which is urban and which is rural?

What things do you find there?

Are there some things that you find in both urban and rural areas?

What are they?
