

Nouns

Nouns are naming words. They're really important — if we didn't have names for things, life would be chaos. Have a go at the questions and you'll be an expert in no time.

1. Circle the noun in each group of words below.

- | | | |
|----------------------|-----------------------------|---------------------------|
| a. the talking robot | c. eating a sandwich | e. snowman slowly melting |
| b. a sticky bun | d. balloons bursting loudly | f. next to the jelly |

2. Circle all the nouns below.

tiny slime potato hair brilliant discover car write computer ogre quickly after

3. Write a sentence which includes all of the following nouns.

- a. teacher coffee desk
-

- b. mountain cabin climber
-

4. Underline the two nouns in the sentence below.

The curious kangaroo peered into their tent.

Now write your own sentence which includes those two nouns.

.....

You may have done a page on naming words, but have you earned the name of Grammagator? Tick the box.

Singular and plural nouns

1. Complete the table below with the nouns in their singular and plural form.

Singular	Plural
.....	monkeys
glass dragon
.....	potatoes

2. In the boxes below, write whether each noun is singular (S) or plural (P).

tree ☐ clouds ☐ bells ☐ goose ☐ gentlemen ☐

3. Write down the plural forms of each of the nouns below.

mystery ➡ wolf ➡ sheep ➡

foot ➡ child ➡ holiday ➡

4. For each of the word pairs in brackets, cross out the option that does not make sense.

- His (shirt / shirts) is dirty, and his (shoes / shoe) are full of holes.
- The (guest / guests) have arrived, and the (table / tables) is set.
- The (wall / walls) are made of gingerbread, and the (roof / roofs) is made of sugar.
- Sam's (sock / socks) are stinky, but his (trainer / trainers) smell worse.
- My (cousin / cousins) travel a lot, but my (sister / sisters) prefers to stay at home.

Grammagators know all about singular and plural nouns. Do you? Tick the box to show how you did.

