

Year 1, Week 6, Phonics, Thursday.

We are going to learn some more of our common exception words.

Can you remember what common exception words are?

That's right, they are words that do not follow our phonic rules.

Can you remember rainbow writing? You can write the words in different colours, to practice the spellings.

Use the words above and rainbow write! You can write some sentences to practice the words as well.

Here is my sentence.

She has a new coat.
