

Spring 2 Week 2 - Monday Phonics.

Each day there is a Phonics video on the Ferndale YouTube channel to help you with your learning.

Our sound today is 'u_e'.

Can you remember this sound 'oo'?

Today's grapheme sounds the same as 'oo' but is written differently?

Some words with the 'oo' sound in:

moon zoom boom

Now some words with the same sound but written with the u_e split digraph:

Flute June rule

These words have the 'oo' phoneme in them, but are written in an alternative way. I know it is tricky to understand so watch the following Geraldine the Giraffe video to help you:

Activity 1

Look at the pictures and write the word using the correct grapheme.

Activity 2

Can you write a sentence using each of the above words?

Remember to use a capital letter, finger spaces and a full stop.
